I am not posting anything. But I am enjoying your postings and also others. I never expected our colleagues like Ganesan, Pillai, Ravichandran, Natarajan and others are so knowledgeable in literature. Thank you very much for including in this literature group. I used to read line by line and enjoy. Hope the retired life will give more time in your lit. Thank u very much sir. Once again I wish you a happy retirement life. Good night sir.

Ashokan ji,

It was surprise to hear from you, that you retiring from Government service. You definitely look young and do not look old enough to retire. Anyway, retiring peacefully from customs is a monumental achievement by itself. However, department would be short of your enlightened knowledge. My best wishes for peaceful retired life. However, I would suggest that you should not keep idle. With your vast knowledge and experience you must be useful to the society. Enjoy for a few days after retirement & seriously consider your next step. Personally, I don't believe in concept of retirement, there is only one retirement! All the best. Cheers

V.Sreenivasan Assistant Commissioner (Retd)
